

A woman with dark hair styled in a braid, wearing a white sari with a gold border. She is adorned with a chunky gold necklace, large gold earrings, and gold bangles on her braid. The background is a soft, neutral tone.

Designer Anand Shah creates a stunning neck piece using leaves as his inspiration. Golden ghunroos depicting the undulating meadows further enhance the look of this jewelled delight - A perfect match to complement this season's festivities at a bridal shower or wedding event...

This summer get set to sizzle in some stunning gold creations that are as timeless and exquisite as you can get...

Hopelessly romantic or truly sporty whatever be your style there is a little bit of sunshine in every piece of gold for the trendy you! When you have a spring-summer line to show off tanned shoulders and strappy outfits offset this with the finest enamel and inlay work for added colour and flair.

Summer Stunners

gorgeous in gold

LOOKING OUT FOR A HOT FASHION TIP
OR A BOLD JEWELLERY STATEMENT?

Stackable gold bangles are hot as they can be teamed with a chunky ring or left alone to make a style statement.

Have you not spent hours and day's searching for the perfect accessory?

Get it correct and make a smashing entry into any wedding party or festivity by following this easy style guide...